

Session-aggregated

Same tests, two sample-size assumptions

Left: bars in red are rejected by Holm at the 5% family-wise level. A positive statistic means the model loses to the null, and every rejection here is of that sign. Right: treating panel rows as independent shrinks 6 of 6 p-values, by a median factor of 52. Values below $1e-7$ are clamped to the axis floor.